

him, and every one strove to make happy.

They that deny a God, destroy Man's N lity ; for certainly Man is of Kin to the B by his Body ; and if he be not of Kin to Co his Spirit, he is an ignoble Creature.

The Foundation of all Religion lies in Things ; that there is a God who rules World, and that the souls of Men are cap of subsisting after Death : For he that comes GOD must believe that he is, and that he Rewarder of them that seek him. So th these Things be not supposed as most agree to human Reason, we cannot imagine what Grounds Mankind should embrace Way of Religion at all.

He that walks only by the Light of Na walketh in Darkness.
